

Sonja Eason- born and raised in Lyons GA. I graduated college from GA Southern University with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Economics. I am currently pursuing a master's degree in Public Administration from Walden University.

I attend church at Surrendered Lives Ministries under Pastor Tina Bentley, where I serve as Church Administrator.

I love the city of Lyons and have served on several boards. I have served on the Boys and Girl Club Board of Directors, the Lyons Housing Authority Board, the Mock Interview Team with local high schools and was a graduate of the Economic Leadership and Development Class in Toombs County.

I am currently serving as a CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) Volunteer where I work with DFACS and the Courts to ensure that children in foster care find stable, loving and nurturing homes and I am the founder of a scholarship fund called SCOPE (Serving Communities with Opportunities for Personal Excellence) where I assist students with college expenses.

I am the Human Resources Director at action pact, Inc Community Action Agency formerly Concerted Services. Some of my key strengths are: Integrity, Leadership and Approachability.

I am married to Carlos Eason and we are the proud parents of Brandon, Yanee', Ashley, Carlos Jr and Cari. We have one grandchild-Ashton who is our pride and joy.
